FOREWORD BY THE EUROPEAN UNION

The European Union strongly believes in investing in higher education, as an asset for the future of individuals and societies alike. The COVID-19 pandemic and the resulting financial difficulties have highlighted the importance of Higher Education in building resilience and responding to crisis situations. Lebanon and its universities are key partners in this response. We hope to support Lebanon’s universities to rebuild quickly and to become even more resilient in the future.

The EU Regional Trust Fund in Response to the Syrian Crisis: The EU Madad Fund

The EU Madad Fund was established in 2014 in order to deliver a coordinated response to the Syrian crisis and to provide Syria’s displaced people with access to education. In collaboration with HOPES and the National Commission for Education and Vocational Training in Lebanon, the EU Madad Fund has supported 2,830 students up until now. The funding is allocated to education, health, protection and water management.
